Pursuant to CRC 2.815 there are new mandatory education and training requirements for attorneys to serve as a temporary judge. The Superior Court will conduct the Bench Conduct training live. The first part will cover the training on bench conduct and demeanor. The second and third parts of training will cover substantive training in the subject area in which the attorney will serve as a temporary judge and judicial ethics which can be completed on line at www2.courtinfo.ca.gov/protem/.

Part One Training will include:

- Bench conduct, demeanor and decorum

MCLE Credits – 3

This course is mandatory for all attorneys serving as temporary judges and required if you have not taken it within the last three years. This course will not be offered online and is a required live participatory workshop.

Pre-registration is required and there will be no charge to participants
